Area Meeting Speaker: Maggie Wade

Maggie Wade, originally from Crystal Springs, MS, is a broadcast journalist at WLBT. Wade has had a storied career while at WLBT, receiving an Emmy nomination and more than 500 awards, locally and nationally. Among her many awards Maggie received the March of Dimes Mississippi Citizen of the Year Award (2006), Salvation Army Lifetime Achievement Award (2012) and the 2014 Woman of the Year Award from the Mississippi Commission on the Status of Women. Most recently Wade was chosen as the 2019 Children’s Benefit Gala Guest of Honor by Junior Auxiliary of Rankin County.

In addition to her daily journalism work, Maggie is passionate about several charitable causes- most notably Wednesday’s Child, which was a weekly news segment featuring foster children in need of permanent homes. Over 7000 children have been adopted into families thanks to the features and in 2011 Wade was recognized by the United State Congress as an Angel in Adoption for her work with Wednesday’s Child.

Maggie, the true definition of a tireless advocate for children in need, was quoted as saying she believes God put her here on this earth to be a servant, not to be served. We look forward to hearing from Maggie about living a life with filled with Gratitude, Passion and Service.
